

THE ARKANSAS GAZETTE, LITTLE ROCK, TUESDAY, JANUARY 17, 1911.

Arkansas Gazette

Published weekly... Daily and Sunday, 6 months, in advance...

Published every day to the year by the Gazette Publishing Company at the Gazette Building, Third and Louisiana streets, Little Rock, Ark.

Entered as the postoffice of Little Rock as second-class mail matter...

The Gazette has a larger circulation than any other newspaper in Arkansas.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 17, 1911.

CREPT ON THE DOOR

Under cover of night creeps was being on the door of the office of Mayor Hoffman of Benton...

Some or later creeps may be hung on the door of somebody's house in Benton as a result of some short attention paid by the sheriff within the enclosure of the county jail.

WHEN THE PEOPLE HAVE PAID FOR SOMETHING.

Wfully aside from the question whether the street railway company should be required to carry the letter carriers from, wholly aside from the question whether the letter carriers have given cause for complaint...

GREEN COUNTY AND ITS POPULATION

By Geo. R. Smith, in this issue.

The population of Green county, as shown by the census report, is fairly due to a slow growth...

Five years ago our people, scattered by those who came and stay, commenced a system of improvements...

THE PRINTERS "Fourth of July"

By Mrs. Thomas B. Gregory.

It was 28 years ago—January 13, 1883—when the printer's union was organized in the city of Little Rock...

"She'll Never Understand"

By Kenneth Harris.

You know I've a heap of store by that sweet voice of mine...

Green county is in the way of immigration and has always had rich soil climate and plenty of good water...

A good, live commercial organization to advance the Green county to the world, as Judge Light suggests...

Every Democratic primary should be able to stand the test of investigation without change of color.

Big dump in price of cold storage food product reported by J. M. ...

They the dispatches that tell of the breaking of three negroes at Shelbyville, Ky.

Here is a valuable little hint. If the jailer is unaccommodating as to refuse to open the door for you, become more insistent.

The men in the natural gas party were really and sincerely impressed with Little Rock and the part of Arkansas they had seen.

Little Bobbie's Pa

By William F. King.

Pa & Ma & me went to a celebration last night, a number of years ago...

I wish we got to the bottom of Ma's friend. The name of the people was Miss & Mrs. Middleton...

Well, and Miss & Mrs. Middleton, have the baby folks. It's a fine baby, isn't it?

We haven't decided, and the mother of the baby, Ma, we wanted to be in it...

I will name the baby. It's a girl.

Well, she's a girl, and I will get the name for her. We'll have a girl, and I will get the name for her.

The Printer's "Fourth of July"

By Mrs. Thomas B. Gregory.

It was 28 years ago—January 13, 1883—when the printer's union was organized...

While the printer was hanging with the printer in the time of the queen, the printer came on a...

GREEN COUNTY AND ITS POPULATION

By Geo. R. Smith, in this issue.

The population of Green county, as shown by the census report, is fairly due to a slow growth...

Five years ago our people, scattered by those who came and stay, commenced a system of improvements...

"She'll Never Understand"

By Kenneth Harris.

You know I've a heap of store by that sweet voice of mine...

Green county is in the way of immigration and has always had rich soil climate and plenty of good water...

A good, live commercial organization to advance the Green county to the world, as Judge Light suggests...

Every Democratic primary should be able to stand the test of investigation without change of color.

Big dump in price of cold storage food product reported by J. M. ...

They the dispatches that tell of the breaking of three negroes at Shelbyville, Ky.

Here is a valuable little hint. If the jailer is unaccommodating as to refuse to open the door for you, become more insistent.

The men in the natural gas party were really and sincerely impressed with Little Rock and the part of Arkansas they had seen.

Sherlock the Monk

Copyright, 1910, by the New York Evening Journal Publishing Company.

Married Life the Second Year

By Mabel Herbert Green.

No. 12.—His Mother's Call. It was his mother's first call since the holidays...

"What a nice mother!" exclaimed Helen. "What a nice mother!"

"What a nice mother!" exclaimed Helen. "What a nice mother!"

"What a nice mother!" exclaimed Helen. "What a nice mother!"

"What a nice mother!" exclaimed Helen. "What a nice mother!"

"What a nice mother!" exclaimed Helen. "What a nice mother!"

"What a nice mother!" exclaimed Helen. "What a nice mother!"

"What a nice mother!" exclaimed Helen. "What a nice mother!"

"What a nice mother!" exclaimed Helen. "What a nice mother!"

"What a nice mother!" exclaimed Helen. "What a nice mother!"

All Over Arkansas

One of our readers told us the other day that reading our paper caused him to build a stable for his cow...

The Hot Springs News says the people of Hot Springs are disappointed...

Papers over all the state are commenting on the fact that the new station is so far from a life-saving station...

The man who edits the average county newspaper is commiserated for his position...

Makes the best of today. The future will come as it will come...

The Atkins Chronicle, speaking of one of our cattle recently purchased by a Pope county man...

We hear talk of several new business for Pine Bluff. There is plenty of room and...

Mrs. Dinsmore, a farmer, 54 years old, is in jail at Benton, charged with killing his wife with a sawing gun at Pine Bluff, Hot Springs county.

While one-half of the state will be sending a member of the family, a person's job arranged him on the ground that the killing was justifiable.

Mr. Gilchrist, Esquire's unusual article, a short time since contemplated a change of business...

There were 250 marriages in Boone county last year.

Hereafter, when the weather will permit, brief religious services will be held every Saturday afternoon...

Our new coroner returned Saturday night from Clark county, having called there as business...

These long lines are the result of the most of the state's travels and explorations.

Walter Nelson, aged 21, at Mt. Pleasant, Mo. Mrs. Elizabeth Bradley, aged 69, at Old Town, Mo. Mrs. Mary H. ...

IMPORTED WORK. Menasha & Bennett, the menswear makers, have with imported work...

OVER TWO THOUSAND BOXES OF THE SOLD IN THE NEW MONTH. This is the record of the three largest...

FREE SUNDAY. Chambers & Brown Furniture Co.

You look premature. Ageless hair color restorer. Keeps hair soft, glossy, and free from dandruff. Use 'The Old' Hair Color Restorer. Price, 50c per box.